JOHN W. DAVIS, CPA EARNS PRESTIGIOUS CEPA DESIGNATION

WILLISTON, Vt., January 29, 2018 – The Exit Planning Institute (EPI) has announced that John W. Davis, CPA, CFP®, CVA, CEPA recently earned the Certified Exit Planning Advisor (CEPA) designation after completing the Institute’s intensive CEPA four-day executive MBA-style program in Chicago, IL. John is Managing Partner of Davis & Hodgdon Associates CPA and has more than 35 years of public accounting and business advisory experience. He joins an elite group of business advisors who have received this designation and are a part of the Exit Planning Institute’s international community of CEPAs. The CEPA program is the most widely accepted and endorsed program in the world for exit planning.

About the CEPA Program

The Certified Exit Planning advisor program was specifically design for business advisors who work closely with owners of privately held companies. Using an executive MBA-style format, the program is designed around a central methodology and uses a combination of lectures, group discussions, case studies and individual exercises to introduce participants to the concepts and to reinforce skills. The program is taught by the Exit Planning Institute’s dedicated faculty of fifteen different instructors, who are all sought after subject matter experts and authors.

To receive the CEPA designation, Davis completed the rigorous four-day program that involved approximately 100 hours of pre-course study, 30 hours of class room instruction and successful completion of a 3 hour proctored examination.
