Taxes Offer Positive Side Effects: According to Local CPA Firm Davis & Hodgdon Associates

Williston, VT June 19, 2012 – It wasn't too painful giving away $1,000 according to Managing Partner, John Davis, of Davis & Hodgdon CPAs. "Each year, following the completion of our clients' tax returns, we include a client satisfaction survey," shared Davis, "for each completed survey that is returned, our firm donates $5 to a local charity." In addition, another $5 is donated by Davis & Hodgdon on behalf of every client that opts to pick up their tax return upon completion rather than having it mailed directly to them.

As a result of these combined efforts, the firm was able to give a total of $1,000 to the following organizations: Make-A-Wish Foundation of Vermont, Lupus Foundation of America - New England Chapter, Humane Society of Chittenden County, Ronald McDonald House of Burlington and the Honduras Rehab Project.

"It's a win-win situation for all those involved," continued Davis, "The taxation work we do for our clients offers us a wonderful opportunity to mix business with the pleasure of helping fellow Vermonters and their charities. We have been doing this for several years now and our clients, well aware of our initiative, are most happy to be an important part of this positive side aspect of our work."

This year's donation was among the highest since the inception of this program. Davis & Hodgdon CPAs is located in Williston and is a leader in providing consulting services to Vermont's entrepreneurs. The firm was recently cited for its energy-efficient workplace and dedication to protecting the environment and community in which it does business.
